COLC

Chapter Officer Leadership Conference

COLC is designed for the Chapter Officers. The conference will focus annually on those skills identified as essential for a successful officer. Conferences are held in each region during the fall months.

Farm Day

Farm Day at Live Oak High School and Yuba-Sutter Fair Grounds

Farm Day is designed to build-up agriculture in our community by exposing our young students to agriculture. Our high school students are given an opportunity to lead and influence young people.

ALA/MFE

Leadership Academy / Made For Excellence

Advanced Leadership Academy is for 10th and 11th graders, while Made for Excellence is an opportunity for 10th graders. These conferences give members a chance to develop their speaking skills, team building skills, leadership skills, and many others that will help them in their futures.

State Leadership Conference

State Leadership Conference

FFA members attending the annual conference will be able to visit with individuals from throughout California as well as leaders from other states and the National FFA. There is a career fair where students can talk to representatives from businesses and colleges that interest them.

FFA Creed

I believe in the future of agriculture, with a faith born not of words but of deeds - achievements won by the present and past generations of agriculturists; in the promise of better days through better ways, even as the better things we now enjoy have come to us from the struggles of former years.

I believe that to live and work on a good farm, or to be engaged in other agricultural pursuits, is pleasant as well as challenging; for I know the joys and discomforts of agricultural life and hold an inborn fondness for those associations which, even in the hours of discouragement, I cannot deny.

I believe in leadership from ourselves and respect from others. I believe in my own ability to work efficiently and think clearly, with such knowledge and skill as I can secure, and in the ability of progressive agriculturists to serve our own and the public interest in producing and marketing the product of our toil.

I believe in less dependence on begging and more power in bargaining; in the life abundant and enough honest wealth to help make it so - for others as well as myself; in less need for charity and more of it when needed; in being happy myself and playing square with those whose happiness depends upon me.

I believe that American agriculture can and will hold true to the best traditions of our national life and that I can exert an influence in my home and community which will stand solid for my part in that inspiring task.

Mrs. Allan, and Mr. Rogers

Dog Trials

Dog Trials is designed to intrigue and excite the youth in our area about agriculture and becoming an FFA member. Dog Trials is the “hook-line-and-sinker” to get students to buy into the organization throughout their four years in high school and encourage them to become involved in agriculture. Each year Dog Trials is held in the spring and is a two day event hosted by the Sage Hen Retriever Club

Objectives: Each participant will

1. Identify Benefits of working with our wildlife.
2. Identify Opportunities and Activities Available to members who choose to get involved.
3. Identify Career Opportunities Agriculture Offers and make personal contacts with members of the agriculture community in our area and throughout the state.

Made for Excellence Conference

This conference is designed to increase the effectiveness of sophomore FFA members. The motivation, excitement, and education gained from this conference will help to enhance the self-esteem and personal development of all who attend. Each of the conferences is designed for a twenty-four hour period over two days hosted at various spots throughout the state during the winter months.

Objectives: Each participant will

1. Identify a Balanced Approach to Life in Areas of Physical, Social, Mental, and Moral Development.
2. Receive Information that Stimulates a More Positive Attitude.
3. Receive Curriculum That is Designed to Develop Participant’s Self-Confidence and Worth.
4. Be Given an Opportunity to Evaluate and Revise Their Personal plans to Include Aspects About Self-Respect and Self-Esteem.

Advanced Leadership Academy

The academy is focused on the junior and senior students within the chapter. This activity will bring focus to the agriculture industry. Each of the conferences is designed for a twenty-four hour period over two-days hosted at various spots throughout the state during the winter months.
